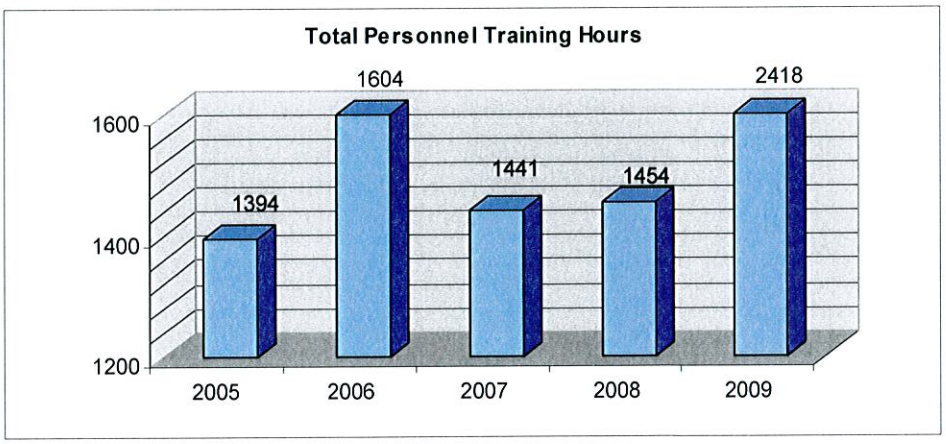
All officers qualified with their duty weapons twice during 2009. One training / qualifications course was conducted at the Webster Groves Police Department's range with Shrewsbury Police Department Firearms Instructors and the other was held at the St. Louis County & Municipal Police Academy range with one of their Firearms Instructors. The firearms training / qualification included duty weapons, off duty weapons and department shotguns. Also included in the 2009 firearms training was the introduction of patrol rifles. Each officer received 24 hours of instruction on the patrol rifle which included a qualification course.

All officers received the following in-service roll call policy training refreshers: standards of conduct, smoking policy, use of force, all hazard plan, vehicle operations, harassment & discrimination in the work place, grievance policy, discipline system, body cavity searches, pepper mace, employee involved domestic violence, pursuit policy, Live Scan and FACES composite software.

All officers also received Taser refresher training, defensive counter strikes training, weapon retention training, and pressure point control tactics training.

Lieutenant Jeff Beaton also attended and successfully graduated from the Federal Bureau of Investigation's National Academy. The FBI National Academy in an 11 week training program provided by the FBI for police commander from all across the United States and around the world. Lieutenant Beaton was the first Shrewsbury Police Officer to attend the FBI National Academy.



Crisis Intervention Team

The Shrewsbury Police Department currently has thirteen police officers trained and certified as Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) members. Two police officers are scheduled to attend the 40 hour training course at the St. Louis County & Municipal Police Academy in the year of 2010. The Crisis Intervention Team members receive in depth training on how to recognize and deal with those suffering from mental illness. The goal of the Crisis Intervention Team is to properly deal with and assist those who are mentally ill. The program is administered by the St. Louis County Police Department and the St. Louis County Circuit Courts has organized a Mental Health Division as a jail diversion program. The Mental Health Court was designed to assist offenders who have been officially diagnosed with a mental illness and have been charged with a crime as a result of their condition. The goal of the St. Louis County Mental Health Court is to provide offenders with resources to assist them effectively deal with their mental illness so they can live productive lives. The Shrewsbury Police Department joined the Crisis Intervention Team in 2005 and joined the St. Louis County Mental Health Court in 2006. The goal of the Shrewsbury Police Department is to get 100% of the patrol officers trained as CIT members and remain dedicated to the Crisis Intervention Team's efforts. We currently have 76.47% of the police department CIT trained.
