Crisis Intervention Team

The Shrewsbury Police Department currently has sixteen police officers trained and certified as Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) members. The Crisis Intervention Team members receive in depth training on how to recognize and deal with those suffering from mental illness. The goal of the Crisis Intervention Team is to properly deal with and assist those who are mentally ill. The program is administered by the St. Louis County Police Department and the St. Louis County Circuit Courts has organized a Mental Health Division as a jail diversion program. The Mental Health Court was designed to assist offenders who have been officially diagnosed with a mental illness and have been charged with a crime as a result of their condition. The goal of the St. Louis County Mental Health Court is to provide offenders with resources to assist them effectively deal with their mental illness so they can live productive lives. The Shrewsbury Police Department joined the Crisis Intervention Team in 2005 and joined the St. Louis County Mental Health Court in 2006. The goal of the Shrewsbury Police Department is to get 100% of the patrol officers trained as CIT members and remain dedicated to the Crisis Intervention Team's efforts. Sixteen of seventeen commissioned officers are CIT trained.
